AMENDED AND RESTATED
BYLAWS
OF
WETHERSFIELD HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF WETHERSFIELD, CONN., INC.

ARTICLE I
General

These bylaws are intended to supplement and implement applicable provisions of law and of the certificate of incorporation of Wethersfield Historical Society of Wethersfield, Conn., Inc. ("the Corporation").

ARTICLE II
Offices

The principal office of the Corporation shall be located within or without the state of Connecticut, at such place as the Board (defined below) shall from time to time designate. The Corporation may maintain additional offices at such other places as the Board may designate. The Corporation shall continuously maintain within the state of Connecticut a registered office at such place as may be designated by the Board.

ARTICLE III
Membership

Section III.1 Eligibility .

(a) The Corporation shall have one (1) class of members. Membership interests in the Corporation shall not be transferable unless otherwise provided in the Corporation's certificate of incorporation.

(b) Membership in the Corporation shall be open to all residents of the Town of Wethersfield and to all those interested in the Town of Wethersfield's history and in American heritage generally. Each person seeking to become a member of the Corporation shall complete the Corporation's application form and return it to the Corporation. Such application shall be accompanied by payment in full of the annual membership fee then in effect. Annual membership fees due for subsequent years shall be paid by each member within thirty (30) days of the anniversary of such member's admission date. Each member's timely payment of the annual membership fee shall be a condition of continued membership with the Corporation.

(c) Annual membership fees are subject to change and will be determined by the Board in consultation with the Development Committee, if one exists. The Corporation will provide members with written notice of any change to the annual membership fee, which will go into effect at the start of the subsequent membership year. Note: The membership period lasts for 12 months from the month of joining or renewal.

Section III.2 Term of Membership The term of any member shall be for one year and renewed annually or until voluntary resignation or removal pursuant to these bylaws. Any member may resign at any time by mailing or delivering written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation (any resignation to take effect when such notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date). A member may be removed as a member of the Corporation for such member's failure to pay his or her required membership dues within sixty (60) days of the due date.

Section III.3 Annual Meeting An annual meeting of the members shall be held in the month of May for the election of Board members and the transaction of other business as may properly come before the members.

Section III.4 Regular Meetings Regular meetings of the members may be held as determined by resolution of the members or of the Board.

Section III.5 Special Meetings Special meetings of the members may be called at any time by the Chair of the Board, or whenever requested in writing by at least ten percent (10%) of the total number of members entitled to vote on the issue(s) to be addressed at such special meeting. Only business within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice may be conducted at a special meeting of the members.

Section III.6 Place and Time of Meetings . Unless the Board determines that a meeting shall be held solely by means of remote communication, such meeting shall be held at such place, either in or out of the state of Connecticut, and at such hour as may be fixed in the notice of the meeting.

Section III.7 Notice of Annual, Regular and Special Meetings. Notice of each meeting of the members shall be given by the Secretary of the Corporation and shall state the date, time and place of the meeting (or the notice shall state that the meeting will be held solely by means of remote communication) and, if it is a special meeting, shall indicate the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is being called.

Notice of any annual or regular meeting need not indicate the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is being called, except that, unless stated in a written notice of such a meeting, (i) no adoption, amendment or repeal of the Corporation's certificate of incorporation or these bylaws, and (ii) no matter, other than the election of Board members at an annual meeting, may be brought up which expressly requires the vote of members pursuant to Connecticut Revised Nonstock Corporation Act (the "Act").

Notice of any meeting shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting. Unless otherwise provided herein or required by law, notice may be communicated in person, by mail, or by telephone, email, voicemail or other electronic means, not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting.

When an annual, regular or special meeting is adjourned to a different date, time or place, additional formal notice need not be given of the new date, time or place if the new date, time or place is announced at the meeting before adjournment.

Section III.8 Participation in Meetings by Means of Remote Communication. Members may participate in any meeting of members by means of remote communication to the extent the Board authorizes such participation. Participation by means of remote communication shall be subject to such guidelines and procedures as the Board adopts by resolution, and shall be in conformity with the following requirements: members participating in a member meeting by means of remote communication shall be deemed present and may vote at such meeting if the Corporation has implemented reasonable measures (1) to verify that each person participating remotely is a member, and (2) to provide such members a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting and to vote on matters submitted to the members, including an opportunity to communicate and to read or hear the proceedings of the meeting substantially.

Section III.9 Waiver of Notice A member may waive any notice required by law, the certificate of incorporation or these bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. The waiver shall be in writing, shall be signed by the member entitled to such notice, and shall be delivered to the Secretary for inclusion in the minutes of the meeting or filing with the corporate records. Attendance at a meeting by a member: (1) waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting that member may have, unless such member at the beginning of the meeting objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting; and (2) waives any objection that such member may have at the meeting that is not within a purpose described in the meeting notice, unless such member objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

Members are entitled to receive notice from the corporation of certain events under Connecticut law (e.g., notice of member meetings). However, a member can waive the requirement that it be provided notice. For example, the member would state in writing to the corporation that, despite the legal requirement, the corporation does not need to provide it notice of a specific event. Additionally, if a member attends a meeting, they will automatically waive the right to claim that the corporation did not provide proper notice of the meeting.

Section III.10 Record Date The Board shall, by resolution, fix a record date for the purposes of determining the members entitled to notice of a meeting of the members, to demand a special meeting, to vote or to take any other action. Such record date may not be more than seventy (70) days before the meeting or action requiring determination of members.

Section III.11 Members' List or Record for Meeting After the Board has fixed a record date for the meeting, the Corporation Staff shall prepare an alphabetical list of the names and addresses of all of the members who are entitled to notice of the meeting. The members' list so prepared shall be made available for inspection by any member entitled to vote at the meeting, beginning two business days after the notice of the meeting is given for which the list was prepared and continuing through the meeting, (1) at the Corporation's principal office or at a place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting will be held, or (2) on a reasonably accessible electronic network, provided that (a) the information required to gain access to such members' list is provided with the notice of the meeting and (b) the members' list remains open to inspection during the meeting. In the event the Corporation makes the members' list available on an electronic network, the Corporation shall take commercially reasonable steps to ensure that such information is available only to members of the Corporation.

Section III.12 Quorum Those members entitled to vote, present in person at any meeting of members of the Corporation shall constitute a quorum for such meeting. There is no minimum percentage threshold.

Section III.13 Vote Each member shall have one vote. Wherever action other than the election of Board members is to be taken by vote of the members, it shall, except as otherwise required by law, the certificate of incorporation, or these bylaws, be authorized if approved by a majority of the votes cast by the members entitled to vote at a meeting at which a quorum of members is present or by mail or email as set forth in Section 3.12. Elected Board members shall be the candidates who receive the highest number of votes cast by the members entitled to vote at a meeting at which a quorum of the members is present or by mail or email, as set forth in Section 3.12. An abstention does not count as a vote cast. Voting by proxy is not permitted.

Section III.14 Presiding Officer and Secretary At any meeting of the members, if neither the Chair, nor a Vice-Chair, nor a person designated by the Board to preside at the meeting shall be present, the members present shall appoint a presiding officer for the meeting. If the Secretary of the Board is not present, the appointee of the person presiding at the meeting shall act as secretary of the meeting.

Section III.15 Action without a Meeting. Any action permitted to be taken at a meeting of the members may be taken without a meeting if all members entitled to vote on the action consent in writing to the action. Action shall be evidenced by a written consent describing the action taken or to be taken, signed by all of the members entitled to vote on the action, and delivered to the Secretary for inclusion in the minutes of the meetings of the members.

ARTICLE IV
Governing Board Members

Section IV.1 Power of Board and Qualification of Board members All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the activities, properties and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of, the Board Members of the board of directors (the "Board" or "Governing Board"). Board memberships are only open to voting members of the Corporation.

Section IV.2 Number of Board members The number of Board members constituting the entire Board shall be not fewer than nine (9) nor more than fifteen (15). The number of Board members constituting the Board shall be the number prescribed by the Board members within the foregoing range or, if no such number has been prescribed, shall be the number of Board members then in office. The number of Board members may be increased or decreased by action of the Board.

Section IV.3 Election and Term of Board Members. Board shall be a staggered board, divided into three (3) groups. At each annual meeting of the members, the Vice President shall announce new Board members to be voted on by members. Subsequently, the members shall elect or re-elect Board members to replace those Board members whose terms are expiring; each Board member thereafter to serve a term of three (3) years and until his or her successor is elected.

If the number of Board members is changed by the Board in accordance with theses bylaws, any increase or decrease shall be apportioned among the classes of Board members so as to maintain the number of Board members in each class of directors as nearly equal as possible. In order to implement the staggered board, the Board shall divide the Board members serving at the time of the adoption of these bylaws, and any additional Board members appointed at such time, into three classes as nearly equal in number as possible, and shall appoint each such class to a term of three (3) years or less as follows: one class shall be appointed for a term of one (1) year, one class shall be appointed for a term of two (2) years, and one class shall be appointed for a term of three (3) years. At the conclusion of these initial terms, all subsequent terms shall be for a period of three (3) years, thus accomplishing a succession of staggered three (3) year terms with one-third (1/3) of the Board eligible for reappointment or replacement each year.

No Board member shall serve more than two (2) consecutive full three-year terms, unless such individual has had an intervening year in which such individual was not a Board member.

At each meeting of the members during which Board members are to be elected, the Vice President shall announce new Board members to be voted on by members

Section IV.4 Removal of Board Members. Any one or more of the Board members may be removed with or without cause at any time by action of the members of the Corporation. The Board could offer the director the opportunity to resign to avoid having to go through the removal process.

A Board member may be removed only at a meeting called for that purpose, and the meeting notice, which must be transmitted to all members at least ten (10) days before said meeting, must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is the removal of the Board member. The Board member subject to removal shall be given an opportunity to be present and to be heard at the meeting at which his or her removal is considered. Board members may adopt resolutions recommending that the members vote to remove the Board member, but, ultimately, the removal of a Board member is subject to a vote by the members at a special meeting called for that purpose.

The Governance Committee can meet with the board member to attempt to resolve the situation. Board members are subject to removal by the vote of the members, regardless of any recommendation of the governing board members as to whether removal is appropriate or not.

Section IV.5 Resignation Any Board member may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Board, its Chair, or the Secretary of the Corporation. Such resignation shall take effect when such notice is so delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

Section IV.6 Newly-Created Board Memberships and Vacancies Newly created Board memberships, resulting from an increase in the number of Board members, and vacancies occurring in the Board for any reason, shall be filled by the Board. The individual appointed by the Board to fill such vacancy shall serve only for the unexpired portion of the term. Thereafter, the position shall be filled by the members in accordance with Section 4.3.

Section IV.7 Meetings of the Board; Notice .

(a) An annual meeting of the Board shall be held each year in the month of May, for the election of officers and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. The annual meeting shall require a minimum of seven (7) days' advance notice.

(b) Regular meetings of the Board shall be held at such time and place (in or out of the State of Connecticut) as may be fixed by the Board; provided, however, regular meetings shall be held at least once every quarter. Regular recurring meetings of the Board may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting. If any of the proposed actions set forth in Section 4.7(d) are to be acted upon at a regular meeting, however, such regular meeting of the board shall require a minimum of seven (7) days' advance notice and shall follow the requirements set forth in Section 4.7(d).

(c) Special meetings of the Board may be called at any time and place (in or out of the state of Connecticut) by the Chair of the Board or a majority of the Board members. Special meetings of the Board shall require a minimum of two (2) days' advance notice and shall state the reason for the meeting.

(d) Notice of the following proposed actions must be given if any of these are to be acted upon: removal of a Board member; amending the certificate of incorporation; adoption, amendment or repeal of the bylaws; dissolution of the Corporation; transfer of substantially all of the Corporation's assets to another corporation; or merger or consolidation of the Corporation. The notice of the meeting must: include the date, time and place of the meeting; set forth which of the above actions are to be considered and/or any other purpose for which the meeting is called.

(e) A Board member may waive any notice required by law, the certificate of incorporation or these bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. The waiver shall be in writing, shall be signed by the Board member, and shall be delivered to the secretary of the Corporation for inclusion in the minutes of the meeting or filing with the corporate records. A Board member's attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any required notice to him or her of the meeting unless at the beginning of such meeting, or promptly upon his or her arrival, such Board member objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting, and does not thereafter vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting.

(f) Notice of any meeting as referenced above may be given in person, by mail or other method of delivery, or by telephone, voicemail or other electronic means.

Section IV.8 Quorum of Board members and Voting Unless a greater proportion is required by law, by the certificate of incorporation, or these bylaws~~,~~ a majority of the number of

Board members prescribed in accordance with Section 4.2, but in no event fewer than two Board members, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business or of any particular business.

Except as otherwise provided by law or by the certificate of incorporation or these bylaws, the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board members present and voting at the meeting at the time of such vote, if a quorum is then present, shall be the act of the Board. Voting by proxy is not permitted for Board members.

Section IV.9 Action without a Meeting The Board may take an action without a meeting if all Board members provide written consent to such action. The consent must be delivered to the Corporation and describe the action taken. A Board member may withdraw its consent to an action by delivering a signed written revocation to the Corporation. Such revocation must be delivered before the Corporation receives signed consents from all other Board members.

Section IV.10 Presumption of Assent. A Board member of the Corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken, unless his/her dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting, or unless s/he shall file his/her written dissent to such action with the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof, or shall forward such written dissent to the Secretary of the Corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to Board members who voted in favor of such action.

Section IV.11 Meetings by Conference Call or Videoconference Any one or more members of the Board may participate in any meeting of the Board by any means of conference telephone, videoconference or similar communications equipment A Board member participating in a meeting by such means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

Section IV.12 Compensation of Board members No Board member shall receive compensation for services rendered to the Corporation in such capacity, but Board members shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and necessary expenses actually incurred in connection with the performance of their duties in the manner and to the extent that the Board shall determine, consistent with the requirements of Section 33-1092 of the Act. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation shall provide no reimbursement for expenses or compensation other than those reasonable and necessary in furthering the Corporation's purposes. Board members may receive reasonable compensation for services performed in other capacities for or on behalf of the Corporation pursuant to authorization by the Board, subject, however, to Article VIII of these bylaws and to Sections 33-1127 through 33-1131 of the Act.

Section IV.13 Minutes The Board shall arrange for minutes to be kept of each meeting of the Board and upon adoption by the Board shall retain such minutes with the permanent records of the Corporation.

Section IV.14 Town Council Liaison. A member of the town council of the Town of Wethersfield shall serve, ex-officio, without the right to vote, on the Governing Board. The liaison shall be appointed by the Mayor of the Town of Wethersfield after each town election.

ARTICLE V
Advisory Board

Section V.1 Purpose. The Corporation shall establish and at all times maintain a board of members who shall offer non-binding, strategic advice and guidance to the Governing Board (the "Advisory Board"). The Advisory Board shall not have any governance or decision-making authority but shall be a resource to offer expertise, recommendations, and insights to assist the Governing Board in fulfilling the Corporation's mission and strategic objectives.

Section V.2 Composition. The Advisory Board shall consist of no less than nine (9) members, who shall be elected by the Governing Board. Membership of the Advisory Board shall only be open to voting members of the Corporation. The Governing Board Vice Chair shall serve as the Advisory Board Chair and liaison.

Section V.3 Term; Removal and Vacancies. Each Advisory Board member shall serve a three-year term, which is renewable at the Governing Board's option. Any Advisory Board member may be removed at any time, either with or without cause, by the Governing Board. Any Advisory Board member may resign at any time by providing written notice to the Chair of the Governing Board. If there is a vacancy on the Advisory Board, the vacancy may be filled by the Governing Board.

Section V.4 Meetings; Minutes and Rules. The Advisory Board shall meet at least once a year and as otherwise requested by the Chairperson of the Advisory Board. The Advisory Board shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and report the same to the Governing Board, and such minutes shall be retained with the permanent records of the Corporation. Sections 4.7, 4.8, 4.9, 4.10 and 4.11 of these bylaws apply to the Advisory Board and their members as well, to the extent applicable.

ARTICLE VI
Officers

Section VI.1 Officers; Eligibility The Board shall elect from among them a Chair, Vice Chair(s), Secretary, Treasurer, and such other officers as determined by the Board.

Section VI.2 Election; Term of Office; Removal; Vacancies All officers shall be appointed at the annual meeting of the Board or at any other meeting of the Board as the Board may determine. Each officer shall hold office for one year and until his or her successor has been appointed and qualified. Each officer shall hold office for [one] year at a time, as part of a three-year term commitment. Each year, current and new officers are voted upon to join or remain on the Board for that specific year. Any officer may be removed by the Board at any time with or without cause. Any vacancy or vacancies occurring in any office of the Corporation may be filled until the next meeting at which officers are elected.

Section VI.3 Resignation. Any officer may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Corporation. Unless the written notice specifies a later effective time, the resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered to the Board, its Chair, or the Secretary of the Corporation.

Section VI.4 Removal. Any officer may be removed by the Board at any time with or without cause.

Section VI.5 Vacancies. Any vacancy or vacancies occurring in any office of the Corporation may be filled until the next meeting at which officers are elected by the concurring vote of a majority of the remaining Board members, though such remaining Board members are less than a quorum, though the number of Board members at the meeting is less than a quorum, and though such majority is less than a quorum.

Section VI.6 Powers and Duties of Officers

A. Chair. The Chair shall preside at each meeting of the members and of the Board members and shall have such powers and duties as usually pertain to the office of Chair and shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him or her, or specifically required to be performed by him or her, by these bylaws, by the Board or by law. In general, the Chair shall consult with and advise the Executive Director, if any, with respect to the achievement of the mission of the Corporation. The Chair will provide formal performance feedback to the Executive Director on an annual basis. If there is no Executive Director, the Chair shall appoint an interim Director. The Chair shall be an ex-officio member of all committees of the Corporation, but without voting power, except in cases of a tie.

B. Vice-Chair(s). In the absence of the Chair or in the event of his or her inability or refusal to act, the Vice-Chair shall perform the duties of the Chair, and, when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Chair. If there is more than one Vice-Chair, the Board shall determine which of them shall so perform the duties of the Chair under such circumstances. The Vice-Chair(s) shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board may from time to time prescribe by standing or special resolution, or as the Chair may from time to time provide, subject to the powers and the supervision of the Board. The Vice Chair shall serve as the Chair and liaison to the Advisory Board.

C. Secretary. The Secretary shall be responsible for preparing and maintaining custody of minutes of all meetings of the members and of the Board and for authenticating and maintaining the records of the Corporation, and shall give or cause to be given all notices in accordance with these bylaws or as required by law, and, in general, shall perform all duties customary to the office of Secretary.

D. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and property of the Corporation. The Treasurer shall keep or cause to be kept complete and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements of the Corporation, and shall deposit all monies and other valuable property of the Corporation in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the treasurer may designate, subject to approval of the Board. Whenever required by the Board, the Treasurer shall render a statement of accounts. At each annual meeting of the Board, the Treasurer shall submit a statement of the Corporation's financial condition. The Treasurer shall at all reasonable times exhibit the books and accounts to any officer or Board member of the Corporation, and shall perform all duties incident to the office of Treasurer, subject to the supervision of the Board, and such other duties as shall from time to time be assigned by the Board.

Section VI.7 Agents and Employees. The Board may appoint agents and employees who shall have such authority and perform such duties as may be prescribed by the Board. The Board may remove any agent or employee at any time with or without cause. Removal without cause shall be without prejudice to such person's contract rights, if any, and the appointment of such person shall not itself create contract rights. The Corporation may pay compensation in reasonable amounts to officers, agents and employees for services rendered outside of their regular duties. The Board shall determine the amount of the compensation that shall be paid or shall adopt policies in accordance with which the amounts of compensation shall be determined.

ARTICLE VII
Executive Director

The Executive Director shall serve at the pleasure of the Board and shall report to the Chair. The Executive Director shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation and shall have general supervision over the day-to-day business of the Corporation, subject to the control of the Board.

The Executive Director shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board are carried into effect. In general, the Executive Director shall perform other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him or her, or specifically required to be performed by him or her, by these bylaws, by the Board, or by law.

The compensation and terms of employment of the Executive Director shall be determined at least annually by the Board. The Board will meet in executive session to evaluate the Executive Director's performance and decide upon the annual salary of the Executive Director.

If there is no Executive Director, the Chair shall appoint an interim Director. The Executive Director shall be an ex officio member of all committees of the Corporation, but shall not have the right to vote nor count toward a quorum.

ARTICLE VIII
Board Members' Conflicting Interest Transactions

Section VIII.1 Conflicts of Interest; Adoption of Policy The Corporation shall maintain a conflict of interest policy in its Board Handbook to ensure compliance with applicable laws including Connecticut General Statute Sections 33-1129 and 33-1130 of the Connecticut Revised Nonstock Corporation Act and any relevant regulations of the Internal Revenue Service.

Section VIII.2 Disclosure; Annual Review of Policy The conflict of interest policy shall be reviewed by the Board at least annually. At the time of their election or appointment, each Board member or officer of the Corporation may be asked to complete a disclosure statement identifying all related parties of the Board member or officer who have a conflicting interest with respect to any transaction between such person and the Corporation. These statements shall be kept on file at the Corporation's office. These statements shall be updated annually and any additions or other changes shall be made by the Board member or officer in writing as they occur.

ARTICLE IX
Miscellaneous

Section IX.1 Fiscal Year The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be from January 1st to December 31st.

Section IX.2 Checks, Notes, and Contracts The Board shall determine, by vote at a meeting or written consent in accordance with Section 4.9, who shall be authorized from time to time on the Corporation's behalf to sign checks, drafts, or other orders for payment of money; to sign acceptances, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness; to enter into contracts; or to execute and deliver other documents and instruments. All officers shall be authorized signatories.

Section IX.3 Written Notice or Consent Any written notice or consent required hereunder may, without limitation, be issued by regular mail, hand delivery, electronic transmission or facsimile.

Section IX.4 Books and Records The Corporation shall keep at its office correct and complete books and records of the accounts, activities and transactions of the Corporation, the minutes of the proceedings of the members, the Governing Board, the Advisory Board and any committee of the Corporation, and a current list of the members, donors, sponsors, Board members and officers of the Corporation and their business addresses. Any of the books, minutes and records of the Corporation may be in written form or in any other form capable of being converted into written form within a reasonable time.

Section IX.5 Amendments to Bylaws Subject to the notice requirements of Section 4.7, the bylaws of the Corporation may be adopted, amended or repealed in whole or in part by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board members present and voting at a meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present, provided that notice of the meeting states that amendment of the bylaws is to be voted on at that meeting.

Section IX.6 References Reference in these bylaws to a provision of the Internal Revenue Code is to such provision of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provision(s) of any subsequent federal income tax law. Reference in these bylaws to a provision of the Connecticut Revised Nonstock Corporation Act or any provision of Connecticut law set forth in such statutes is to such provision of the General Statutes of Connecticut, Revision of 1958, as amended, or the corresponding provision(s) of any subsequent Connecticut law.
